Your Majesty's ever loyal and faithful Citizens of London, exceeded by none of your Subjects in honest and anxious Zeal for your Majesty's Happiness, and the Glory and Prosperity of your Reign, rejoice in all Events which augment your Majesty's domestick Felicity; firmly trusting that every Increase of the August House of Brunswick will prove an additional Security to our Religion, and the great Charter of Liberty, which, in consequence of the glorious and necessary Revolution, that Illustrious House was chosen to defend.

Signed by Order of Court,
James Hodges.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer.

I thank you for this dutiful Address, and for your Congratulations on the safe Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of another Prince.

It gives Me great Satisfaction to find that you consider the Increase of My Family as an additional Security to Our Religion, and to that Liberty which I look upon with Pleasure as the Basis of My Government, and which I shall always think My Honour and Interest concerned to defend.

They were all graciously received, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

Dublin, June 6.

Tuesday last being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Birth-day, the Flag was displayed on Birmingham Tower: The Great Guns, at the Salute Battery in His Majesty's Park the Phœnix, were fired three Rounds, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks. At Noon there was a very numerous Assembly of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction of both Sexes, at the Castle, who appeared in extraordinary Splendor to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; before whom an Ode, set to Musick, was performed. In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency to the Ladies; and at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Naples, May 14. On Thursday last Mount Vesuvius began to send out Columns of black Smoke with loud Explosions; and soon after a Lava burst forth near the same Spot where the great Eruption was in the Year 1767. Their Sicilian Majesties are prepared to leave Portici at a Moment's Warning: But as the Lava has taken it's Course towards Resina, (the Spot under which the ancient City of Herculaneum is buried) and does not menace Portici, it is thought the Court will not remove. The Lava is about Five Miles in Length, has destroyed some Vineyards, and is stopped within a Mile of Resina. Mr. Hamilton, His Britannick Majesty's Minister at this Court, had the Honour of conducting their Sicilian Majesties to the Lava; which happened to be remarkably curious at the Moment of their Arrival, having just taken it's Course into a deep Trench, forming a most astonishing Cascade of Fire, the Fall of which was perpendicular, and not less than Sixty Feet.
